

3rd Quarter Clubs

Hebrew Language Lunch will continue for students who want to speak only Hebrew. Tuesdays at lunch. No cost. Please register.

Challah for Hunger

Come make challah for a good cause! Students will bake and sell challah with the proceeds going to Sudan relief as well as Mazon. In addition, students will participate in other social action activities. The club will meet Thursdays from 3:30-4:30. Parents will be informed of which days the club will meet.

Grades 3-5

Cost is free but we encourage parents to sponsor the cost of supplies for a week, $15

Students in JCC athletics may leave at 4:00

Math Club

This club will focus on helping students think through the process of problem solving. The intent is not to teach additional math skills, but rather to help students learn to apply the skills that they already know to challenging problems. This club is for students in 4th and 5th grade math and will help prepare the students for our March math contest.

This club is free, but parents of students competing in the math contest are asked to help prepare dinner at the contest.

Mondays: January 11th—March 8th.
Club ends at 4:30

Cooking Club

Come mix up some of your favorite recipes and discover new ones as well! Every other week we'll make some tasty treats with our own creative touches!

Tuesdays 3:30-4:30 Cost: $50

Hebrew Newspaper Club

Want to brush up your Hebrew skills and become a published journalist? Join Morah Batel for the Hebrew club! 3rd-5th grade is invited Wednesday afternoons from 3:30-4:30 to develop their reading, writing, and research skills. Students will write their own article in Hebrew. At the end of the club, students will publish the first NOJDS Hebrew newspaper.

Cost: $60

Study Skills Lunch Club

Join Dr. Berk for lunch on Wednesdays to learn study skills. This club will help students with organizational skills, memory techniques and other important study skills.

This club is free to join and open to 3rd—5th grade students.

Study Hall

Study hall continues for 3rd-5th grade students, Monday-Wednesday. Please e-mail Mrs. Schlackman for more info.
