This Week's Highlights and What's to Come

This was a very busy, full week of school. It is wonderful to see so many students reading their class books and returning them every few days in order to receive a new one. We even have some that are returning them daily and really pushing ahead. As we move through our Superkids series, we are now able to decode words and begin reading and writing with greater precision. In Math, we are building on concepts that will be continually developed yearly. We are concluding our wood and paper unit and will be studying Native Americans in the next few weeks, leading up to Thanksgiving. I am looking forward to meeting with each of you on Nov. 2nd, so please call the office and set up a time if you have not already done so. Please remember, I am available anytime you have a concern or just want to touch base. Shabbat Shalom!

Hebrew and Judaic News

Dear Parents

This week we learned the letters yud, vav, and nun sofeet. They look very similar but the length of every letter is different. We learned words that have the letters like yona- a dove, vered- a rose, and anan- a cloud. We worked at the centers- read, wrote, and much more.

We also learned a new song in Hebrew, Llifamim Ani Atsuv Ve Lifamim Sameach".

Shabat Shalom,
Mery Beit Halahmi and Lauren Ungar
