This Week's Highlights and What's to Come

New Sight Words
the, you

Reminders &
Upcoming Event

*We will be collecting T'zedakah each day, but especially on Friday

* Pajama day—Sept 9th

*No school on Monday— Labor Day

It was so nice to see those of you that could make it to Open House, please remember to contact me anytime with any questions large or small. This week, we introduced our new Superkid, Oswald, and have begun creating words with the short Oo sound. It is so wonderful to see the anticipation in each child's eyes as they wait to meet these Superkids. It is as though they are their real friends. On Rosh Chodesh, the beginning of the new Hebrew month of Elul, we began exploring the value, "Loving and Honoring One Another". We created a variety of friendship circles, and shared kind words to one another. In Math, we are continuing to explore our numbers 1-10, and becoming very comfortable creating combinations of each. It would be very helpful if you continued to practice combinations and counting coins at home also. Shortly, I will be sending home books for you to read with your child. Each time they return their book, they will receive the next one. Please do not keep these books more than a week at a time. Shabbat Shalom!

Hebrew and Judaic News

.Dear Parents,

This week we learned about the letters shin and sin and the words that begin with their sounds, in English and Hebrew.

We also learned the song "Mi Shetov Lo" and of course, we played with the Israeli game, taki and with dominoes.

Shabbat Shalom! Mery Beit Halahmi

Oneg fun!
